

when local stations can offer worthwhile content I will tune in. Until then please allow XM radio to continue offering the content they now have as well as the opportunity to compete as a free enterprise. the last thing this country needs is more government special interest intervention from washington.